The officers of the St. Paul Police Central District are committed to working with its residents to maintain a high quality of life in our neighborhoods. The strengths of our neighborhoods are the people living in them and how we communicate & cooperate with each other. We are committed to making these relationships as strong and effective as possible. If you are looking to start a neighborhood group, establish a web or Facebook page, or simply improve on what you are currently doing, please let us know. We want to help.
